

WINTER SCHOOL ON RESEARCH METHODS IN BIOLOGY

January 16 – 23, 2017

Organized By

Biological Anthropology Unit
Indian Statistical Institute
203, Barrackpore Trunk Road
Kolkata -700108

Last date of Application:

10th December, 2016

Intimation to Selected Participants:

December 16, 2016.

Registration Fee:

Rs. 3500/= (for students and scholars)
Rs. 4000/= (for teachers)

Mode of Payment:

Cash/ Demand Draft
(in favour of Indian Statistical Institute, Kolkata)

Organizers:

Chairman
Prof. Pabitra Banik
Prof-In-Charge
Biosciences Division
Secretary
Prof. Subrata K. Roy
Convenor
Dr. Baidyanath Pal

Objective: The winter school intends to train research minded scholars in basic methods of research in biological anthropology, human physiology and human genetics. The course will help them to work in real-life time situation, collecting data, analyzing data using statistical software and writing the report in a publishable form.

Who can Apply:

Research Scholars, Students and Teachers (must have a masters degree) in any disciplines - Anthropology, Physiology, Human Genetics and the allied subjects.

Filled-up application form should be sent by post or by e-mail to Dr. Baidynath Pal, Biological Anthropology Unit, Indian Statistical Institute, 203 B.T. Road, Kolkata 700108.

e-mail: baidya.isi@gmail.com

Phone: (033)25753247 (office)

09434575105 (mobile).

Selected candidates will be intimated by e-mail and it is mandatory to send the registration fees by cash/demand draft

Number of seats: 25

Incomplete and late registration fee will not be accepted.

Accommodation and Food: No accommodation will be provided. Outstationed participants may make their own arrangement for boarding and lodging. Lunch and snacks will only be provided to all participants free of cost on all working days during the duration of winter school.

Travelling Allowance:

No travelling allowance will be available.