

Strong and weak limit theorems for certain urn models

Amites Dasgupta

Indian Statistical Institute, Kolkata

We consider urn models in which depending on the color of the ball observed, the number of balls of various colors are increased following the corresponding row of the replacement matrix. For certain types of stochastic replacement matrices we obtain strong and weak limit theorems using martingale based arguments.

List of invited speakers

Schedule for December 15