About the Judge

PARTHA KUMAR PALIT,
EFIAP/P, ARPS, EPSA,
FFIP, HON.PESGSPC,
HON.FSWAN, GPA.PESGSPC

I was born in 1953, although electronics is my hobby but photography is my love and passion since childhood.

I started photography of my own in 1970 with a box camera gifted by my elder sister. Passed certificate course in photography in 1976, diploma course in 1978. Also completed the judges' training course (appreciation of pictorial photograph) in 1982.

I was awarded arps from royal photographic society of gr. Britain in 1981,

EFIAP/platinum from federation Internationale de l'art photographique, France in 2018,

FFIP (fellow federation of Indian photography) distinction in 2012,

EPSA from photographic society of America in 2018, for the contribution in pictorial photography.

I am participating in national & international exhibitions since 1978. Many of my pictorial works have been reproduced in journals and catalogues.

I am co-author of 'learn photography' – a text book on photography published by the 'Photographic Association of Dum Dum, India' (PAD).

I am life member of pad since 1982 & federation of Indian photography since 2012. I am also member of PSA and RPS.

I am a regular faculty member serving as honorary lecturer in photography for both in basic & advanced courses in photography. Acting as project guide for the dissertation papers of the diploma students.

I am deeply involved in various organizational functions like, international conferences, national seminars, international salons, members exhibition, workshops and symposiums etc. of PAD.

I am also serving as honorable judge in international & national photographic exhibitions under the patronage of PSA, FIAP, RPS, GPU, FIP etc.
