

INDIAN STATISTICAL INSTITUTE

NOTICE

In partial modification of the Notice issued on May 18, 2020, it is hereby intimated to all candidates of the ISI Admission Test 2020, that:

- The ISI Admission Test 2020, which was earlier postponed through a notice dated April 8, 2020, will now be conducted on Sunday, AUGUST 02, 2020.
- In view of the unprecedented situation resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic, the following steps have been necessitated in connection with Admission to ISI in 2020:
 - For admission to all undergraduate and postgraduate academic programmes (that is, excluding JRF programmes), interviews will NOT be conducted as a part of the selection process. Final selection will be based on the score(s) in written test(s). The revised selection policy will be published soon on the ISI Admission website.
 - The revised selection policy for applicants to the B.Stat./B.Math. as well as M.Tech.(CS/CrS) programmes who are eligible for written-test waiver as per the Waiver Policy of ISI, will also be announced shortly through the website.
 - Owing to logistic constraints or unavoidable issues,
 - no requests for centre change will be entertained;
 - some candidates may have to be allocated to the centre of their second preference due to merger of a few centres with those close to them. The revised list of centres will be published shortly on the website.
 - The revised date of issue of admit cards will also be announced soon through the website.
 - No requests for refund of application fee will be entertained on account of rescheduling of the Admission Test.

G. Mukherjee

Dean of Studies

Dated: May 19, 2020