

The talk will fall into the theme of understanding universal minimal flows of topological groups, especially of homeomorphism groups of one-dimensional compact connected spaces. An important tool here is the Kechris-Pestov-Todorćevic correspondence, which connects topological dynamics and the structural Ramsey theory.

In the talk we compute universal minimal flows of homeomorphism groups of Ważewski dendrites.